

Gaspard and Florette

From 2 years

The Small Theatre of the Hands
Traditional marionette shows

Duration 45 minutes

Musical tale and poetry

One day, in the snow-covered winter, two children, Gaspard and Florette, decide to make a snowman.

He begins to speak and Florette is troubled and disappears. Gaspard goes to search for her. It is the beginning of an adventure, involving several strange encounters spread over the four seasons.

A wandering entertainer will be his first meeting, then a singing squirrel, who is a little extravagant, will become a real friend. Other astonishing meetings will follow.

English-speaking voices . Translated by Patrick Maiden, english teacher. (Master of Arts) in Social Science and Education.

This story, full of tenderness, will bring out the doubt and impatience but, in the end, friendship and determination will carry the day.

Minimum dimensions of the performance area. Length: 4m - Width: 4m - Height: 2,20 m. Access to electricity (a 220 v power-point).

"Le Petit Théâtre des Mains"

Pierre Gauthier - 10 rue du Vivier - 72500 Jupilles - Tél. : 02.43.79.15.61 - Mail pgauthier@zoreil.com

Philippe Bertrand - (Marionnettiste Nord France et Belgique) Tél: 00 (33) 6 08 10 06 81 - Mail ph37510bertrand@aol.com